KATIE GLENN

---

Of Counsel

Katie Glenn is a fierce competitor and determined advocate for insurance policyholders, with deep experience in all types of insurance disputes, including matters involving:

- Commercial general liability and construction defect liability
- Director and officer liability
- Cyber
- Transactional liability
- Fiduciary liability
- Errors and omissions
- Employment practices liability
- Securities broker/dealer liability
- Insurance broker liability

Katie's prior work representing insurance companies gives her an insider's perspective that is invaluable to her representation of corporate insureds. Armed with that information, she identifies and solves complicated insurance issues while delivering proven solutions for clients.

As a former business owner, Katie knows the challenges businesses face on a daily basis and uses that insight to anticipate her clients' needs. She approaches each case with the same focus and drive that helped her win three NCAA swimming championships before moving on to set six world records in U.S. Masters Swimming.

Katie's practice includes extensive experience in:

- Insurance coverage disputes
- Bad faith coverage denials
- Insurance code violations
- Deceptive Trade Practices (DTPA) violations
- Breach of contract
- Coverage analysis

Katie's strategic approach to coverage disputes and her keen ability to simplify complex issues make her a powerful advocate for policyholders.
